10 — Agreement Explainer

Ubbo Emmius Foundation

You agree to make a recurring gift to the Ubbo Emmius Foundation, a charitable organization, registered in the city of Groningen, with offices at 9712 GL Groningen, Netherlands, Oude Boteringestraat 44, and registered in the Chamber of Commerce under 41013496, hereafter referred to as: Ubbo Emmius Foundation. Your gift is tax-deductible under certain conditions, which include written proof of your recurring gift to the Ubbo Emmius Foundation. Please use a copy of this agreement when claiming any potential tax benefits.

In case of additional requests or conditions that cannot be specified in this agreement, such as including the death of one or multiple persons other than the donor as a cause for terminating this agreement, please contact us via info@uef.nl or 050 - 363 7595.

Conditions

For more information on the requirements for making a tax-deductible donation to a Dutch ANBI, please visit www.belastingdienst.nl/giften.

Step-by-step guide

Listed are the steps to be completed by the donor and the recipient so that all gifts made can be tax-deductible.

- The donor provides their personal information on this agreement
- The donor signs two copies of the agreement and submits both copies to the recipient
- The recipient completes the agreement by filling out the designated fields and signs both copies
- The recipient returns one signed copy to the donor, and keeps the other copy in the foundation's files

The Ubbo Emmius Foundation is classified as an ANBI. Please visit www.belastingdienst.nl/giften to review this classification.

Recurring gift in fixed amounts

The recurring gift provides the recipient with the right to claim an annually recurring donation. The donor is obliged to make a donation to the Ubbo Emmius Foundation in the exact same amount for a set number of years.

Stipulations upon death

The agreement must stipulate the recurring gift ends upon the death of the donor or the death of another person. The other person could be a family member or a spouse if they have been specifically mentioned in this agreement by the donor. In case of including a spouse, either the death of the donor or the death of the donor's spouse must be chosen as a valid cause for terminating this agreement. This agreement cannot be used to determine the recurring gift must end in case of the death of multiple people.

Details and signature provided by the donor's partner

If you are married and/or are in a civil partnership, your partner must co-sign the agreement in accordance with article 88, Book 1 in the Dutch Civil Code. Civil partnerships are included in the civil registry. If you are in a domestic partnership that has only been documented before a notary, your partner is not legally considered your civil partner, nor is any person registered as a resident on the same address. If you are married but are no longer living with your spouse, they must still co-sign this agreement unless you are legally divorced.

Details provided by the Ubbo Emmius Foundation

Transaction code

The transaction code refers to the number used by the Ubbo Emmius Foundation for the foundation's records. The number consists of no less than one, and no more than fifteen digits and may only consist of numbers, not letters nor special characters. The transaction code must be unique, and may only be used once in the Ubbo Emmius Foundation's files.

RSIN (fiscal identification number)

The number under which the Ubbo Emmius Foundation has been registered by the Netherlands' fiscal authorities

Signature provided by the UEF

This is where the Ubbo Emmius Foundation's authorized signatory provides their personal details and signature. This agreement is made within the framework of the Ubbo Emmius Foundation's gift acceptance policy, available on uef.nl.
